ABOUT US

In 2013 Trexpert Established Foundation in National Trekking Events in Manali & in 2016, I established Trexpert in India with a passion to provide a highly personalised service organizing ADVENTURE SPORTS TREKKING, ECO-TOURISM TOURS & TRAVELS .

I wanted to share intimate insights to India, the place I was born and grew up in and introduce travelers to the different cultures and ways of life. Today, our Trexpert Headquarter in India is managed by a highly qualified team who has among them more than 40 years of working experience in the tourism industry. As travel professionals and outdoor enthusiasts, the team has managed numerous climbs, expeditions ,adventurous activities and tours around the world.

We have spread our wings to specialize in adventure travel.

We want to offer each of you who travel with us an enriching experience that lasts beyond each trip.

In these uncertain days it is all the more important that we get out and explore our wonderful world.

It is through travel we breakdown prejudice, build understanding and create a better and more caring world.

TREXPERT SERVICES

Sincerity

We give objective but sincere opinions to specific questions you may have on the destinations.

Safety

Your safety is top of our concerns. We are always in touch with our guides while you are traveling. We remain contactable in case you need help in emergency situations.

Reliability

We ensure all your trip arrangements are made properly so you do not have surprises. In the event if we are not able to fulfill a request or program element, we will be upfront with you and advise you on other alternatives.

Flexibility

When traveling, it is important that we use our initiative to enhance your enjoyment. We are flexible (e.g. in terms of food and switch of program timing) and we always try to be sensitive to your travel needs

Value for Money

Who says an all-rounder trip must be expensive? With careful planning and good knowledge, it is possible to plan a good trip within a reasonable budget – be it a tour or a trek. We do not define ‘value for money’ as ‘cheap’. On the contrary, we believe that our programs and efforts should justify what you are paying for.

Well, we have said so much.

Most importantly, we think a good sense of humour is as important as being well-prepared for your trip. Open your mind to all the people, events and endless possibilities that you may encounter. That could really be the philosophical anecdote to the best trip of a lifetime.
